

Senior React developer with an interest in sports

We at Flax Innovations are looking for a driven lead frontend developer who wants to join us in further developing our live-score and sports betting product Triggy. We are looking for someone who is experienced in both programming and architecture and wants to be part of a fast-paced journey with us at our office in central Stockholm.

The position suits a person interested in sports, mobile development and the latest in web development. Ideally, the person wants to be highly involved in the product and grow with us in an exciting environment where your efforts will make a big difference.

ABOUT THE POSITION:

At Flax Innovations we develop innovative products for live-score and sports betting. We work towards a common goal of enhancing the gaming experience using artificial intelligence, automation and personalized user interfaces.

During the spring of 2019 we launched and went live with three customers with our first product Triggy. We have received very good response from the market and have more customers on the way in. In order to meet demand and continue to develop our products, we are now expanding our development team in central Stockholm.

With us you will be able to use the latest technology, be able to grow in your own role and get a lot of freedom and responsibility as we expand. You will be part of a great team with driven and positive employees.

As a lead frontend developer at Flax you will:

- Lead the frontend team
- Work close to other developers, UX and business developers
- Drive the frontend development and problem solving
- Create and shape new functions and products
- In addition to salary, be offered part ownership through an options program

QUALIFICATIONS:

- At least 5 years of experience in frontend development in React or equivalent
- Have previously held a leading role in a development team
- Very good knowledge of HTML / CSS / JS
- Motivated by constant personal development and growing together with us
- Thrive in a fast-moving environment and work in teams
